When I think about the Hawaiian Islands, I often think of the beautiful flowers that grow there. So beautiful are these flowers that I'm sure they are from heaven. This painting was inspired by this and the stories often told through hula about beautiful Hawaii.

While driving from Kona to Hilo to watch the Merrie Monarch Festival, I was in awe of the beauty of the land. As I drove I passed a few herds of sheep... I thought, "How cool!" This print was inspired by my journey across the Big Island of Hawaii.
